Dear St. Joseph Families,

Thank you is something we often hear for our contributions but I feel like it is never said enough. I wish to say thank you to our parents who gave of their time and energy last week to make Catholic Schools Week a success. Two of my favorite parts of Catholic Schools Week are the Sunday Mass and the Open House. Our students dress in school uniform on Sunday while serving, singing, and reading. People in the parish know me by now and were quick to tell me how impressed they were by our students. Thank you for having your kids there to display their talents and to answer the call to serve.

Thank you to the parents who came to serve at our Open House. It is an important night where other families want to know more about SJS and to begin the discernment process about where to enroll their children. Whether setting up for the night with organizing and decorating, providing personal testimony of positive experiences, facilitating conversations between guests and faculty, it was truly an exciting night.

I also wish to thank everyone who contributed to the Penny Wars competition. SJS raised funds for Mary's House, a local organization who assists mothers who said yes to life and need some additional assistance. Funds raised will provide families with supplies and support needed in caring for a newborn. To our Falcon Family, I say THANK YOU. St. Joseph, pray for us.

SJS MARDI GRAS MAMBO SILENT AUCTION

What is a wine pull? Well, at our MARDI GRAS MAMBO SILENT AUCTION on MARCH 12, wine bottles will be wrapped and numbered! We will be selling corks with numbers on them to match the wine bottles. Each wine pull cork will cost $10. When you purchase a cork, you get to take home the wine bottle with the matching number! There is no limit on how many you purchase! Can't make the event? No problem you can purchase your wine bottle (numbered cork) before the event. Everything will be on Handbid.

It's also an easy way to donate an item to our silent auction and generate good money for our school! We will be receiving wine bottle donations (valued at $10 or more) at school morning and afternoon carpool from now until March 11th. They can be dropped off anytime in the school office. We do ask that wine bottles be in a bag when they are dropped off.

If you need our volunteers to come pick up bottles from you, please contact Bridget Ezernack. Thank you for helping us make this a super fun and very successful fundraising event for our school!
