PRINCIPAL, CLAYTON COBB
ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL, KATHERINE SUCKLE

Dear St. Joseph Families,

We have a very busy week in the midst of a very busy season. Still, let us remember what this season is actually about. This is a time of joy in which we are preparing for the coming of the Lord. The celebration of Christmas is near. We will be dressing up, exchanging gifts, visiting loved ones, having parties, riding on trollies and singing carols, and much more. Still, let us remember at the very center and the cause of such joy has very little to do with anything else other than the unconditional love of our Savior. As it is beginning to look a lot like Christmas, let us enjoy the journey together.

As we celebrate the love of the Christ child, let us keep in mind the many ways in which He has blessed us. First, our school continues to grow. We are now over 300 students and hope to welcome many more in the upcoming year. We have had minimal interruptions due to major health crises. We have been truly blessed this semester to see everyone's face back on campus.

Thank you for being the St. Joseph family that you are. In doing so, let us keep one another in prayer. We have experienced some loss this year in our school family. Thank you or imitating the love of Christ with one another, sharing this most precious gift during difficult times. May the Lord bless us and keep all of us close to His Sacred Heart. St. Joseph, pray for us.

VIRTUE OF MAGNANIMITY

St. Louis de Monfort, pray for us!

DEFINITION:

Seeking with confidence to do great things in God; literally "having a large soul"

PRAYER:

Sacred Heart of Jesus,
You loved us even to the point of death. Give me a big heart! Give me Your heart! Help me to love others with all my heart!

As a missionary, Louis traveled anywhere and everywhere to bring the love of Mother Mary to people. He wrote several books, including The Secret of the Rosary and True Devotion to Mary. His teachings have endured, and they inspired a young Karol Wojtyła—the future St. Pope John Paul II—to entrust his entire life “to Jesus through Mary.”
