PRINCIPAL, CLAYTON COBB

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL, KATHERINE SUCKLE

Dear St. Joseph Families,
As a product of the 80's, I spent many Saturday mornings watching cartoons. A commercial for Captain OG Readmore would come on and would encourage kids to read. I spent my Saturdays from 10-12 reading The Mouse and the Motorcycle. I remember 4th grade, when we wouldn't stop talking about video games; Mrs. Lawson made the entire class get a book off the shelf. Corey's Sea Monster is a book that I didn't think I'd love, but I certainly did. My point is that reading is something we should inspire our children to do. For 2 years in a row, we've chosen the Ignatius Book Fair, which offers books on adventure, humor, mystery, and faith. Please note the hours of operation and invest in this endeavor to get children excited about reading!

Dads, I wish to formally invite you to our first Dads Club meeting of the 26-27 school year. Dad or stepdad, we would like you to join us for food and fellowship as we discuss getting involved in the school. There are so many opportunities for you to plug in and get involved. REMEMBER! This Wednesday at 6 pm at Silver Star Grill on Youree Drive. We hope that you can make it. From helping out with Pancakes with Santa, the annual PTO Soiree, or our own Falcon Shoot Out, we'd love for you to be there. God bless and have a great week. St. Joseph, pray for us.

How to Purchase and Use eWallet Credits

1. Create Your Account

- Parents must first create an account.
- After creating the account, assign your children to their classrooms.

2. Add eWallet Credits

- Once your account is set up and your children are linked, open the search bar (magnifying glass in the top right corner).
- Type in eWallet.
- Three denomination options will appear—select the unit(s) you'd like your child to use at the fair.

3. Assign Credits to Your Child

- At checkout, be sure to assign the purchased credits to one of your children before completing checkout.
- This will load their name on our payment device so that we can find them during checkout at the fair.

4. Options for Multiple Children

- One Unit for All: You may assign a single unit to one child and let siblings share it.
 - Example: You buy one $50 unit for Dan and tell Dan and Sue to each spend $25. At checkout, both children simply give the cashier Dan's name.
- Separate Units for Each Child: You may also purchase multiple units and assign one to each child.
 - Example: You buy three $20 units and assign one each to Dan, Sue, and Art. Each child checks out under their own name.

5. Please note that unused balances cannot be refunded, but they are available in the parent's account for use online.
